IAC-M-306
10 September 1957

1. Approval of Minutes
3 September 1957
(IAC-M-305)

Approved as written.

2. Review of Crisis Situations

- a. Watch Committee Report
No. 370

Noted.

- b. Arab-Israeli Situation
(Report by Ad Hoc Working Group, 7 September)

Noted this report. In this connection, Mr. Dubberstein outlined certain information received subsequent to publication of this paper and the members discussed various aspects of this report, particularly those relating to possible ramifications of the Syrian situation.

- c. Soviet Developments

General Collins raised for discussion the possible significance of recent Soviet activities, especially with respect to the extent to which they might reflect a change in the Soviet attitude or portend new Soviet moves. Mr. Cumming likewise emphasized the importance of analyzing these developments. The members then reviewed in some detail the nature, possible motivation for, and probable political and military significance of recent Soviet activities. Following this discussion, the members agreed generally as to the necessity of maintaining a high degree of vigilance on related developments and possible future Soviet moves.
